

Create a safe, inclusive environment to support wellbeing.

How to use this poster

This poster has been designed to be used by schools and early childhood education centres that want their learning place to be a safe and inclusive environment for children, young people, staff and their families who identify as gender diverse and/or LGBTIQ+.

This poster can be used in numerous ways:

- By schools or early education centres to actively promote themselves in their community as an inclusive organisation to their community;
- by an individual employed by a school or early education centre to identify themselves as a key contact that can provide support and
- information; or to designate a safe space within the organisation. Inclusive learning spaces maximise the wellbeing of children and young people.

Poster is set at A3 size but can be printed at A2, A3 & A4. Just select your desired print size and 'Fit to page' or 'Scale to fit' in your print settings.

Colour print The poster is most effective when printed in full colour.

Go to next page to view and print your poster relationships &

reproductive health

For relationships and sexuality education program delivery, visit:
true.org.au

Disclaimer: True Relationships & Reproductive Health (True) has taken every care to ensure that the information contained in this publication is accurate and up-to-date at the time of being published. As information and knowledge is constantly changing, readers are strongly advised to confirm that the information complies with present research, legislation and policy guidelines. True accepts no responsibility for difficulties that may arise as a result of an individual acting on this information and any recommendations it contains.

V1-20200205

a safe space

This is a safe space for you and your family.

Everyone is welcome, including those who identify as gender diverse and/or LGBTIQ+. This space is inclusive and respectful and prioritises the wellbeing of all children.

