

All School Program mapping to the Australian Curriculum

True Program			Australian Curriculum: Health and Physical Education.
			Prep- Foundation
			Strand: Personal, Social and Community Health
Program Name	Program structure	Key focus areas of program	Sub strand	Content description and elaboration
Prep- Foundation Keep Me Safe Introduction Keep Me Safe is a program designed to teach personal safety to young people in a healthy positive way. The program will introduce skills that can help protect children from abuse. The program commences in Prep with the Introductory lesson and builds through the years to the Progression lesson in year 3. While focus areas at each level remain the same, activities and structure change as children develop levels of understanding and literacy.	2 x 30-minute sessions for classes up to 30 students. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion, story time, and colouring. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked. This includes a booklet to take home.	Recognise and name external public and private body parts. Support students to identify types of touch. Support students to identify their personal safety network. Develop an understanding of feelings. Includes I have the right to be safe booklet for children to take home and discuss with parents/ carers.	Being healthy, safe and active	Name parts of the body and describe how their body is growing and changing (ACPPS002) Identifying and labelling private parts of the body and understanding the contexts when body parts should be kept private
			Identify people and demonstrate protective behaviours and other actions that help keep themselves safe and healthy (ACPPS003)
			1/Identifying knowledge, skills and understandings that can help keep them safe and healthy 2/Identifying different relationships they have with people and which of these relationships make them feel safe and supported 3/Naming trusted people in their community who can help them stay safe and healthy, and practising ways of asking for help in a range of different scenarios
			Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Identify and describe emotional responses people may experience in different situations (ACPPS005) 1/ Identifying and describing the emotions of people who are happy, sad, excited, tired, angry, scared or confused 2/Talking about connections between feelings, body reactions and body language

True program			Australian Curriculum: Health and Physical Education
			Year 1-2
			Strand: Personal, Social and Community Health
Program Name	Program structure	Key focus areas of program	Sub strand	Content description and elaboration
Year 1 Keep Me Safe Beginner The year 1 program can follow on from the Prep lesson building on prior knowledge and literacy levels.	2 x 30 minute sessions for classes up to 30 students. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion, story time, and colouring. Cost to school based is on number of classes booked. This includes a booklet to take home.	Recognise and name external public & private and private body parts. Support students to identify types of touch. Develop an understanding of feelings. Support students to identify their personal safety network.	Being healthy, safe and active	Practise strategies they can use when they feel uncomfortable, unsafe or need help with a problem or situation (ACPPS017) 1/Identifying and rehearsing strategies they can use when requiring assistance, such as asking an adult, reading basic signs and solving a problem with friends 2/Recognising photos and locations of safe places and people who can help 3/Describing warning signs (physical, emotional and external) that can help them to know if they are safe or unsafe
Year 2 Keep Me Safe Intermediate The year 2 program can follow on from the Year 1 lesson building on prior knowledge and literacy levels.		Includes I have the right to be safe booklet for children to take home and discuss with parents/ carers.	Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Identify and practise emotional responses that account for own and others' feelings (ACPPS020) 1/Recognising own emotions and demonstrating positive ways to react in different situations 2/Identifying the body's reaction to a range of situations, including safe and unsafe situations, and comparing the different emotional responses 3/Predicting how a person or character might be feeling based on the words they use, their facial expressions and body language
True program			Australian Curriculum: Health and Physical Education

			Year 3-4
			Strand: Personal, Social and Community Health
Program Name	Program structure	Key focus areas of program	Sub strand	Content description and elaboration
Year 3 Keep Me Safe Progression The progression program will continue to develop skills that can protect children from abuse while developing further the ideas of public & private bodies, places & behaviours. The year 3 program can follow on from the previous year's lessons building on prior knowledge and literacy levels.	2 x 30 minute sessions for classes up to 30 students. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion, story time and group activities. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked. This includes a booklet to take home.	Recognise and name external Public & private body parts. Support students to identify types of touch. Further develop concepts of public/ private bodies, places & activities. Develop an understanding of feelings. Support students to identify their personal safety network. Includes "I have the right to be safe" booklet for children to take home and discuss with parents/ carers.	Being healthy, safe and active	Describe and apply strategies that can be used in situations that make them feel uncomfortable or unsafe (ACPPS035) 1/Recognising physical responses that indicate they are feeling uncomfortable or unsafe 2/Rehearsing assertive behaviours and strong non-verbal communication skills 3/Examining protective behaviours to stay safe in different situations e.g. when someone makes them feel uncomfortable or unsafe (S)
			Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Investigate how emotional responses vary in depth and strength (ACPPS038) 1/Recognising own emotional responses and levels of their response in different situations 2/Understanding that emotional responses vary across cultures and differ between people and different situations 3/Analysing scenarios and identifying possible triggers and warning signs to predict emotional responses 4/Describing strategies they can use to identify and manage their emotions before making a decision to act

Year 4 Looking After My Body Looking after my body teaches personal safety to young students in a healthy, positive way. The program introduces skills that can help protect children from abuse. The program also begins to address changes during puberty as children may have body changes happening at this age. It is important for students to have relevant information before these changes occur.	2 x 60 minute session for classes up to 30 students. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion and group activities. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked. This includes a booklet to take home.	Recognise and name external public and private body parts. Further develop concepts of public and private bodies, places and activities. Support students to identify types of touch. Develop an understanding of feelings. Support students to identify their personal safety network.	Being healthy, safe and active	Describe and apply strategies that can be used in situations that make them feel uncomfortable or unsafe (ACPPS035) 1/Recognising physical responses that indicate they are feeling uncomfortable or unsafe 2/Rehearsing assertive behaviours and strong non-verbal communication skills 3/Examining protective behaviours to stay safe in different situations e.g. when someone makes them feel uncomfortable or unsafe (S)
		Identify the physical, social and emotional changes as we grow. Identify how to look after their bodies. Answer questions students may have. Includes I have the right to be safe booklet for children to take home and discuss with parents/ carers.	Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Investigate how emotional responses vary in depth and strength (ACPPS038) 1/Recognising own emotional responses and levels of their response in different situations 2/Understanding that emotional responses vary across cultures and differ between people and different situations 3/Analysing scenarios and identifying possible triggers and warning signs to predict emotional responses 4/Describing strategies they can use to identify and manage their emotions before making a decision to act
			Being healthy, safe and active	Explore strategies to manage physical, social and emotional change (ACPPS034) 1/Discussing physical, social and emotional changes that occur as individuals get older, and exploring how these changes impact on how they think and feel about themselves and different situations 2/Identifying people or sources of information that they can access if they have questions about the changes that are occurring

True program			Australian Curriculum: Health and Physical Education
			Year 5-6
			Strand: Personal, Social and Community Health
Program Name	Program structure	Key focus areas of program	Sub strand	Content description and elaboration
Year 5 Option 1 My Lifecycle Intermediate Designed for year 5. This is the traditional and highly effective program that incorporates 2 lessons delivered by a True educator which provide information around puberty, reproduction and body image.	2 x 60-minute session for classes up to 30 students. Sessions are delivered by a True educator. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion, quiz & group work. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked. This includes a workbook and puberty booklet to take home.	Identify the physical, social and emotional changes of puberty.	Being healthy, safe and active	Investigate resources and strategies to manage changes and transitions associated with puberty (ACPPS052)
		Identify how to look after their bodies.		1/Understanding that individuals experience changes associated with puberty at different times, with differing levels of intensity and with different responses 2/Researching and identifying age-appropriate text and web-based resources to enhance understanding of changes associated with puberty 3/Examining the range of products available to manage the physical changes associated with puberty
		Demonstrate an understanding of how the media influences how we feel about our bodies.		Examine how identities are influenced by people and places (ACPPS051)
		Identify strategies for a positive body image.		Exploring how family, peers, popular culture and the media influence how individuals interact and the choices they make in given situations
		Identify the parts of the male and female reproductive system.		Recognise how media and important people in the community influence personal attitudes, beliefs, decisions and behaviours (ACPPS057)
		Identify different methods of		1/Examining how media and public identities influence the way people act and the choices they make 2/Sharing how important people in their life influence them to act or behave in a healthy or safe way 3/Analysing health messages in the media and comparing their interpretations with those of other members of the class 4/Exploring media representations of people who are Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, from diverse cultural backgrounds, same sex attracted or gender diverse, and discussing how representations impact on community values

		fertilisation and birth. Gain an understanding of how peer pressure can effect decisions. Help students identify where to get factual information on and offline. Answer questions students may have. Includes Puberty information booklet to take home and discuss with parents/ carers.		Investigate community resources and ways to seek help about health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS053) Researching health information sources and places where they can seek help, and prioritising those that are reliable and trustworthy Plan and practise strategies to promote health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS054) Selecting and practising appropriate responses to promote safety in different situations.
Year 5 Option 2 Growing Minds & Bodies 1 Designed for year 5. This program is more extensive yet more cost effective for schools. The program includes 4 x 1 hour sessions for the students. Following a 2 hour professional development session the	A 2-hour professional development session for teachers. 4 x 60-minute session for classes up to 30 students. First 3 sessions delivered by class teacher with session 4 delivered by a True educator. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy	Identify the physical, social and emotional changes of puberty. Identify how to look after their bodies. Identifying healthy/ unhealthy relationships.	Being healthy, safe and active	Investigate resources and strategies to manage changes and transitions associated with puberty (ACPPS052) 1/Understanding that individuals experience changes associated with puberty at different times, with differing levels of intensity and with different responses 2/Researching and identifying age-appropriate text and web-based resources to enhance understanding of changes associated with puberty 3/Examining the range of products available to manage the physical changes associated with puberty Practise skills to establish and manage relationships (ACPPS055) 1/Assessing the impact of different relationships on personal health and wellbeing

teachers will deliver the first 3 sessions on: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1/ Respectful relationships 2/ Decision making including peer pressure 3/ Media and body image A True educator will then deliver the 4th session on Puberty. Growing Minds & Bodies 1 supports teacher's confidence and capability to have conversations with their students around growing and changing.	during the sessions, including class discussion, quiz & group work. Cost to school is $500 for the 2 hour professional development session plus the cost of the classroom session delivered by True. This will be calculated depending on the number of classes booked. This includes a puberty information booklet to take home.	Gain an understanding of influences & consequences of decision making. Gain an understanding of how peer pressure can effect decisions. Gain an understanding of how the media influences how we feel about our bodies. Identify strategies for a positive body image. Help students identify where to get factual information on and offline. Answer questions students may have. Includes Puberty information booklet to take home to discuss with parents/ carers.		2/ Proposing strategies for managing the changing nature of relationships, including dealing with bullying and harassment and building new friendships 3/ Selecting and practising appropriate ways to share power within relationships Examine the influence of emotional responses on behaviour and relationships (ACPPS056) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1/ Analysing situations in which emotions can influence decision making, including in peer-group and family situations 2/ Discussing how inappropriate emotional responses impact relationships 3/ Exploring why emotional responses can be unpredictable 4/ Exploring the emotions associated with feeling unsafe or uncomfortable and how emotions can vary according to different contexts and situations Examine how identities are influenced by people and places (ACPPS051) Exploring how family, peers, popular culture and the media influence how individuals interact and the choices they make in given situations Recognise how media and important people in the community influence personal attitudes, beliefs, decisions and behaviours (ACPPS057) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1/ Examining how media and public identities influence the way people act and the choices they make 2/ Sharing how important people in their life influence them to act or behave in a healthy or safe way 3/ Analysing health messages in the media and comparing their interpretations with those of other members of the class 4/ Exploring media representations of people who are Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, from diverse cultural backgrounds, same-sex attracted or gender diverse, and discussing how representations impact on community values Investigate community resources and ways to seek help about health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS053) Researching health information sources and places where they can seek help, and prioritising those that are reliable and trustworthy Plan and practise strategies to promote health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS054)
---	--	---	--	---

				Selecting and practising appropriate responses to promote safety in different situations.
Year 6 Option 1 My Lifecycle Advanced Designed for year 6. This is the traditional and highly effective program that incorporates 2 lessons delivered by a True educator which provide information around puberty, reproduction and decision making. The year 6 program is a more advanced program building on prior knowledge.	2 x 60 minute session for classes up to 30 students. Sessions are delivered by a True educator. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion, quiz & group work. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked. This includes a workbook and puberty booklet to take home.	Identify the physical, social and emotional changes of puberty. Identify how to look after their bodies. Identify the parts of the male and female reproductive system. Identify different methods of fertilisation and birth. Gain an understanding of influences and consequences of decision making. Gain an understanding of how peer pressure can effect decisions. Discuss legal and social impacts of sexting. Help students identify where to	Being healthy, safe and active	Investigate resources and strategies to manage changes and transitions associated with puberty (ACPPS052) 1/Understanding that individuals experience changes associated with puberty at different times, with differing levels of intensity and with different responses 2/Researching and identifying age-appropriate text and web-based resources to enhance understanding of changes associated with puberty 3/Examining the range of products available to manage the physical changes associated with puberty Examine the influence of emotional responses on behaviour and relationships (ACPPS056) 1/Analysing situations in which emotions can influence decision making, including in peer-group and family situations 2/Discussing how inappropriate emotional responses impact relationships 3/Exploring why emotional responses can be unpredictable 4/Exploring the emotions associated with feeling unsafe or uncomfortable and how emotions can vary according to different contexts and situations Examine how identities are influenced by people and places (ACPPS051) Exploring how family, peers, popular culture and the media influence how individuals interact and the choices they make in given situations Investigate community resources and ways to seek help about health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS053) Researching health information sources and places where they can seek help, and prioritising those that are reliable and trustworthy Plan and practise strategies to promote health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS054) Selecting and practising appropriate responses to promote safety in different situations.

		get factual information on and offline. Answer questions students may have. Includes Puberty information booklet to take home and discuss with parents/ carers.
Year 6 Option 2 Growing Minds & Bodies 2 Designed for year 6. This program is more extensive yet more cost effective for schools. The program includes 4 x 1 hour sessions for the students. Following a 2 hour professional development session the teachers will deliver the first 3 sessions on 1/ Respectful relationships 2/Decision making including peer pressure 3/ Media and body image. A True educator will then deliver the 4th session on Puberty. Growing Minds & Bodies 2 supports teacher's	2 hour professional development session for teachers. 4 x 60 minute sessions for classes up to 30 students. First 3 sessions delivered by class teacher with session 4 delivered by a True educator. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion, quiz & group work. Cost to school is $500 for the 2 hour professional development session in addition to the 1 x 60 minute session delivered by the True educator based on	Identify the physical, social and emotional changes of puberty. Identify how to look after their bodies. Identifying healthy/ unhealthy relationships. Gain an understanding of influences and consequences of decision making. Gain an understanding of how peer pressure can effect decisions.	Being healthy, safe and active	Investigate resources and strategies to manage changes and transitions associated with puberty (ACPPS052) 1/Understanding that individuals experience changes associated with puberty at different times, with differing levels of intensity and with different responses 2/Researching and identifying age-appropriate text and web-based resources to enhance understanding of changes associated with puberty 3/Examining the range of products available to manage the physical changes associated with puberty Practise skills to establish and manage relationships (ACPPS055) 1/Assessing the impact of different relationships on personal health and wellbeing 2/Proposing strategies for managing the changing nature of relationships, including dealing with bullying and harassment and building new friendships 3/Selecting and practising appropriate ways to share power within relationships Examine the influence of emotional responses on behaviour and relationships (ACPPS056) 1/Analysing situations in which emotions can influence decision making, including in peer-group and family situations 2/Discussing how inappropriate emotional responses impact relationships 3/Exploring why emotional responses can be unpredictable 4/Exploring the emotions associated with feeling unsafe or

confidence and capability to have conversations with their students around growing and changing. The year 6 program is a more advanced program building on prior knowledge.	number of classes booked. This includes a puberty information booklet to take home.	Gain an understanding of how the media influences how we feel about our bodies. Identify strategies for a positive body image Help students identify where to get factual information on and offline. Answer questions students may have. Includes Puberty information booklet to take home and discuss with parents/ carers.		uncomfortable and how emotions can vary according to different contexts and situations
				Examine how identities are influenced by people and places (ACPPS051) Exploring how family, peers, popular culture and the media influence how individuals interact and the choices they make in given situations
				Recognise how media and important people in the community influence personal attitudes, beliefs, decisions and behaviours (ACPPS057) 1/Examining how media and public identities influence the way people act and the choices they make 2/Sharing how important people in their life influence them to act or behave in a healthy or safe way 3/Analysing health messages in the media and comparing their interpretations with those of other members of the class 4/Exploring media representations of people who are Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, from diverse cultural backgrounds, same sex attracted or gender diverse, and discussing how representations impact on community values
				Investigate community resources and ways to seek help about health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS053) Researching health information sources and places where they can seek help, and prioritising those that are reliable and trustworthy
				Plan and practise strategies to promote health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS054) Selecting and practising appropriate responses to promote safety in different situations.
True Program			Australian Curriculum: Health and Physical Education
			Year7-8
			Strand: Personal, Social and Community Health
Program Name	Program structure	Key focus areas of program	Sub strand	Content description and elaboration
Year 7 Puberty Refresher	1 x 60-minute session for classes up to 30 students.	Identify the physical, social and emotional	Being healthy, safe and active	Investigate the impact of transition and change on identities (ACPPS070)

Designed as an optional lesson for year 7 students. This topic should be introduced in primary school so this lesson serves to consolidate information already provided. This is particularly useful for students that may develop later than their peers.	There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion, quiz, question & answer session. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked. This includes a puberty information leaflet to take home.	changes of puberty. Identify strategies to manage changes Identify sources of accurate information and support Answer questions students may have.	Contributing to healthy and active communities	1/Examining the impact of physical changes on gender, cultural and sexual identities 2/Investigating how changing feelings and attractions are part of developing sexual identities 3/Identifying feelings and emotions associated with transitions, and practising self-talk and help-seeking strategies to manage these transitions and associated responsibilities <hr/> Evaluate strategies to manage personal, physical and social changes that occur as they grow older (ACPPS071) 1/Accessing and assessing health information and services that support young people to effectively manage changes and transitions as they grow older 2/Investigating the changing nature of peer and family relationships and proposing strategies to manage these changes 3/Analysing how roles and responsibilities change and evaluating strategies for managing these increasing responsibilities 4/Evaluating and practising coping, communication and problem-solving skills to manage changes and emotions associated with puberty and getting older <hr/> Investigate the benefits to individuals and communities of valuing diversity and promoting inclusivity (ACPPS079) 1/Investigating how respecting diversity and challenging racism, sexism, disability discrimination and homophobia influence individual and community health and wellbeing 2/Examining values and beliefs about cultural and social issues such as gender, race, violence, sexuality and ability and how resisting stereotypes can help students be themselves.
Year 7 Relationships Beginner Designed for year 7 students. This program supports development of	1 x 60 minute session for classes up to 30 students. There are a variety of interactive experiences	Identifying healthy/unhealthy relationships.	Being healthy, safe and active	Evaluate strategies to manage personal, physical and social changes that occur as they grow older (ACPPS071) 5/Developing and evaluating strategies on use of social media, phones and the internet to remain safe and protect and respect the privacy of self and others

respectful relationships by identifying healthy/unhealthy relationships and learning negotiating skills. This one-hour program is designed to equip young people with the skills not only for partner relationships but skills that could be used in all relationships that they encounter.	for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion & group work. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked.	Decision making. Assertiveness skills. Legal and social impacts of sexting. Answer questions students may have.		Practise and apply strategies to seek help for themselves or others (ACPPS072) 1/Examining scenarios to highlight how emotions, dispositions and decision-making can affect outcomes 2/Discussing emotional responses to interactions within relationships, and proposing strategies to seek help 3/ Exploring help-seeking scenarios young people encounter and sharing strategies for dealing with each situation
				Investigate and select strategies to promote health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS073) Proposing and practising strategies for celebrating safely, including assertiveness, refusal skills.
			Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Investigate the benefits of relationships and examine their impact on their own and others' health and wellbeing (ACPPS074) 1/Examining how individuals, family and peer groups influence people's behaviours, decisions and actions 2/Understanding and applying online and social protocols to enhance relationships with others and protect their own wellbeing, including recognising and responding to inappropriate online content 3/Analysing how their relationships influence behaviours and actions 4/Recognising the impact bullying and harassment can have on relationships, including online relationships 5/Exploring skills and strategies needed to communicate and engage in relationships in respectful ways
Year 8	1 x 60-minute session for classes up to 30 students.	Identifying healthy/	Being healthy, safe and active	Practise and apply strategies to seek help for themselves or others (ACPPS072)

Relationships Intermediate Designed for year 8 students. This program supports development of respectful relationships by identifying healthy/unhealthy relationships and learning negotiating skills. This one-hour program is designed to equip young people with the skills not only for partner relationships but skills that could be used in all relationships that they encounter. The Year 8 program is a more advanced program for the older student. More sophisticated classroom discussion and scenarios are pitched at the older age group.	There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion & group work. Cost to school based on number of classes booked.	unhealthy relationships. Gender stereotypes Answer questions students may have.		1/Discussing emotional responses to interactions within relationships, and proposing strategies to seek help 2/ Exploring help-seeking scenarios young people encounter and sharing strategies for dealing with each situation
				Investigate and select strategies to promote health, safety and wellbeing (ACPPS073) Proposing and practising strategies for celebrating safely, including assertiveness, refusal skills.
			Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Investigate the benefits of relationships and examine their impact on their own and others' health and wellbeing (ACPPS074) 1/Analysing how their relationships influence behaviours and actions 2/Recognising the impact bullying and harassment can have on relationships. 3/Exploring skills and strategies needed to communicate and engage in relationships in respectful ways
			Contributing to healthy and active communities	Investigate the benefits to individuals and communities of valuing diversity and promoting inclusivity (ACPPS079) 1/Investigating how respecting diversity and challenging racism, sexism, disability discrimination and homophobia influence individual and community health and wellbeing 2/Examining values and beliefs about cultural and social issues such as gender, race, violence, sexuality and ability and how resisting stereotypes can help students be themselves

Year 8 Porn and Consent Designed for year 8 students. It is a program for schools that wish to be proactive in discussions around pornography and consent.	1 x 60-minute session for classes up to 30 students. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion & group work. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked.	Understanding porn Communication and consent Negotiation and boundaries	Being healthy, safe and active	Evaluate strategies to manage personal, physical and social changes that occur as they grow older (ACPPS071) 1/Developing and evaluating strategies on use of social media, phones and the internet to remain safe and protect and respect the privacy of self and others
			Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Investigate the benefits of relationships and examine their impact on their own and others' health and wellbeing (ACPPS074) 1/Examining how individuals, family and peer groups influence people's behaviours, decisions and actions 2/Understanding and applying online and social protocols to enhance relationships with others and protect their own wellbeing, including recognising and responding to inappropriate online content 3/Exploring skills and strategies needed to communicate and engage in relationships in respectful ways.
True Program			Australian Curriculum: Health and Physical Education
			Year 9-10
			Strand: Personal, Social and Community Health
Program Name	Program structure	Key focus areas of program	Sub strand	Content description & Elaboration
Year 9	1 x 60-minute session for classes up to 30 students.	Identifying respectful relationships and	Being healthy, safe and active	Evaluate factors that shape identities and critically analyse how individuals impact the identities of others (ACPPS089)

Relationships Progression Designed for year 9 students. This session supports young people to identify and navigate healthy relationships. Decision making and safe partying are explored.	There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion and group activities. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked.	how to negotiate within relationships. Decision making and safe partying Answer questions students may have.		1/Analysing how societal norms, stereotypes and expectations influence the way young people think about their, abilities, gender, sexuality, sexual health, and risk-taking behaviours
				Examine the impact of changes and transitions on relationships (ACPPS090) 1/Practising skills to deal with challenging or unsafe situations, such as refusal skills, communicating choices, expressing opinions and initiating contingency plans 2/Asserting their stance on a situation, dilemma or decision by expressing thoughts, opinions and beliefs that acknowledge the feelings of others 3/Assessing behavioural expectations in different relationships and social situations, and examining how these expectations can influence decisions and actions
				Plan, rehearse and evaluate options for managing situations where their own or others' health, safety and wellbeing may be at short or long term risk (ACPPS091) Proposing and practising a range of realistic responses to scenarios where peers are encouraging them to take unnecessary risks
				Propose, practise and evaluate responses in situations where external influences may impact on their ability to make healthy and safe choices (ACPPS092) 1/Exploring external influences on sexuality and sexual health behaviours, and recognising the impact that decisions and actions can have on own and others' health and wellbeing 2/Evaluating the influence of personal, social, environmental and cultural factors on decisions and actions young people take in relation to their health, safety and wellbeing
				Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing Investigate how empathy and ethical decision making contribute to respectful relationships (ACPPS093) 1/Investigating the characteristics of positive, respectful relationships and the rights and ethical responsibilities of individuals in relationships

				2/Investigating how the balance of power influences the nature of relationships and proposing actions that can be taken when a relationship is not respectful 3/Comparing own decisions with those of others and acknowledging others' right to act differently and to change their mind 4/Practising skills to deal with challenging situations such as communicating choices, expressing opinions and initiating contingency plans
				Critically analyse and apply health information from a range of sources to health decisions and situations (ACPPS095) Examining actions to take greater responsibility in relation to their own health
Year 9 Healthy Sexual Relationships Designed for year 9 students. This session provides information and discussion on how young people can navigate sexual relationships, make healthy choices, where they can obtain reliable health information and how to access support services	1 x 60 minute session for classes up to 30 students. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion. Condom demonstration may be included. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked.	Consent. Relationships, expectations and values. Contraception and STI's. Answer questions students may have.	Being healthy, safe and active	Evaluate factors that shape identities and critically analyse how individuals impact the identities of others (ACPPS089) 1/Analysing how societal norms, stereotypes and expectations influence the way young people think about their bodies, abilities, gender, sexuality, sexual health, and risk-taking behaviours Examine the impact of changes and transitions on relationships (ACPPS090) 1/Practising skills to deal with challenging or unsafe situations, such as refusal skills, communicating choices, expressing opinions and initiating contingency plans 2/Asserting their stance on a situation, dilemma or decision by expressing thoughts, opinions and beliefs that acknowledge the feelings of others 3/Assessing behavioural expectations in different relationships and social situations, and examining how these expectations can influence decisions and actions Plan, rehearse and evaluate for managing situations where their own or others' health, safety and wellbeing may be at short or long term risk (ACPPS091) Proposing and practising a range of realistic responses to scenarios where peers are encouraging them to take unnecessary risks

				Propose, practise and evaluate responses in situations where external influences may impact on their ability to make healthy and safe choices (ACPPS092) 1/Exploring external influences on sexuality and sexual health behaviours, and recognising the impact that decisions and actions can have on own and others' health and wellbeing 2/Evaluating the influence of personal, social, environmental and cultural factors on decisions and actions young people take in relation to their health, safety and wellbeing
			Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Investigate how empathy and ethical decision making contribute to respectful relationships (ACPPS093) 1/Investigating the characteristics of positive, respectful relationships and the rights and ethical responsibilities of individuals in relationships 2/Investigating how the balance of power influences the nature of relationships and proposing actions that can be taken when a relationship is not respectful 3/Comparing own decisions with those of others and acknowledging others' right to act differently and to change their mind 4/Demonstrating and advocating appropriate bystander behaviour when participating in online interactions, for example in situations where another person's photo has been tagged without permission, sexting and posting explicit content 5/Practising skills to deal with challenging situations such as communicating choices, expressing opinions and initiating contingency plans
				Critically analyse and apply health information from a range of sources to health decisions and situations (ACPPS095) Examining actions to take greater responsibility in relation to their own health
Year 10	1 x 60 minute session for classes up to 30 students.	Identifying respectful relationships and	Being healthy, safe and active	Evaluate factors that shape identities and critically analyse how individuals impact the identities of others (ACPPS089)

Sexual Relationships Advanced Designed for year 10 students. This session provides information and discussion on how young people can navigate sexual relationships, make healthy choices, where they can obtain reliable health information and how to access services. Classroom discussions are more sophisticated, and scenarios are pitched at the older age group.	There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class discussion, group work and condom demonstration. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked.	how to negotiate within relationships. Consent. Contraception and STI's Answer questions students may have.	1/Analysing how societal norms, stereotypes and expectations influence the way young people think about their bodies, abilities, gender, sexuality, food, physical activity, sexual health, drugs and/or risk-taking behaviours 2/Examining how diversity and gender are represented in the media and communities, and investigating the influence these representations have on identities <hr/> Examine the impact of changes and transitions on relationships (ACPPS090) 1/Practising skills to deal with challenging or unsafe situations, such as refusal skills, communicating choices, expressing opinions and initiating contingency plans 2/Asserting their stance on a situation, dilemma or decision by expressing thoughts, opinions and beliefs that acknowledge the feelings of others 3/Assessing behavioural expectations in different relationships and social situations, and examining how these expectations can influence decisions and actions <hr/> Plan, rehearse and evaluate options (including CPR and first aid) for managing situations where their own or others' health, safety and wellbeing may be at short or long term risk (ACPPS091) Proposing and practising a range of realistic responses to scenarios where peers are encouraging them to take unnecessary risks <hr/> Propose, practise and evaluate responses in situations where external influences may impact on their ability to make healthy and safe choices (ACPPS092) 1/Exploring external influences on sexuality and sexual health behaviours, and recognising the impact that decisions and actions can have on own and others' health and wellbeing 2/Evaluating the influence of personal, social, environmental and cultural factors on decisions and actions young people take in relation to their health, safety and wellbeing
---	---	---	---

			Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Investigate how empathy and ethical decision making contribute to respectful relationships (ACPPS093) 1/Investigating the characteristics of positive, respectful relationships and the rights and ethical responsibilities of individuals in relationships 2/Investigating how the balance of power influences the nature of relationships and proposing actions that can be taken when a relationship is not respectful 3/Comparing own decisions with those of others and acknowledging others' right to act differently and to change their mind 4/Demonstrating and advocating appropriate bystander behaviour when participating in online interactions, for example in situations where another person's photo has been tagged without permission, sexting and posting explicit content 5/Practising skills to deal with challenging situations such as communicating choices, expressing opinions and initiating contingency plans Critically analyse and apply health information from a range of sources to health decisions and situations (ACPPS095) Examining actions to take greater responsibility in relation to their own health
Year 10 Diversity and Media Designed for year 10 students. This lesson provides information on gender and sexual diversity, with advanced exploration of media	1 x 60-minute session for classes up to 30 students. There are a variety of interactive experiences for students to enjoy during the sessions, including class	Understanding gender diversity, sexual diversity and sexual orientation. Critically analyse popular representation of diversity across mainstream media.	Being healthy, safe and active	Evaluate factors that shape identities and critically analyse how individuals impact the identities of others (ACPPS089) 1/Analysing how societal norms, stereotypes and expectations influence the way young people think about their bodies, abilities, gender, sexuality, sexual health & risk-taking behaviours 2/Examining how diversity and gender are represented in the media and communities, and investigating the influence these representations have on identities

representations of sexuality	discussion and group work. Cost to school is based on number of classes booked.	Explore and compare sexuality in porn and social media.		Examine the impact of changes and transitions on relationships (ACPPS090)
				1/Practising skills to deal with challenging or unsafe situations, such as refusal skills, communicating choices, expressing opinions and initiating contingency plans
				2/Asserting their stance on a situation, dilemma or decision by expressing thoughts, opinions and beliefs that acknowledge the feelings of others
				3/Assessing behavioural expectations in different relationships and social situations, and examining how these expectations can influence decisions and actions
				Plan, rehearse and evaluate options for managing situations where their own or others' health, safety and wellbeing may be at short or long term risk (ACPPS091)
				Proposing and practising a range of realistic responses to scenarios where peers are encouraging them to take unnecessary risks
				Propose, practise and evaluate responses in situations where external influences may impact on their ability to make healthy and safe choices (ACPPS092)
				1/Exploring external influences on sexuality and sexual health behaviours, and recognising the impact that decisions and actions can have on own and others' health and wellbeing
				2/Evaluating the influence of personal, social, environmental and cultural factors on decisions and actions young people take in relation to their health, safety and wellbeing
			Communicating and interacting for health and wellbeing	Investigate how empathy and ethical decision making contribute to respectful relationships (ACPPS093)
				1/Investigating the characteristics of positive, respectful relationships and the rights and ethical responsibilities of individuals in relationships

			2/Investigating how the balance of power influences the nature of relationships and proposing actions that can be taken when a relationship is not respectful 3/Comparing own decisions with those of others and acknowledging others' right to act differently and to change their mind 4/Demonstrating and advocating appropriate bystander behaviour when participating in online interactions, for example in situations where another person's photo has been tagged without permission, sexting and posting explicit content 5/Practising skills to deal with challenging situations such as communicating choices, expressing opinions and initiating contingency plans
--	--	--	--